5-YEAR PLAN
PHA FISCAL YEARS 2004 - 2008
[24 CFR Part 903.5]

A. Mission

State the PHA's mission for serving the needs of low-income, very low income, and extremely low-income families in the PHA's jurisdiction. (select one of the choices below)

- ☐ The mission of the PHA is the same as that of the Department of Housing and Urban Development: To promote adequate and affordable housing, economic opportunity and a suitable living environment free from discrimination.
- ☒ The PHA's mission is: (state mission here)

Mission Statement: To uplift our community by providing families with safe, affordable, quality housing and by fostering opportunities for resident empowerment and self-sufficiency.

Vision Statement: As it moves forward, the CRHA will facilitate the development of equitable housing and community development through the building of desirable, attractive and well managed neighborhoods, the provision of tools for family lifelong learning and the enhancement of economic opportunities for its residents.

In the area of resident initiatives, the CRHA will continue to work closely with PHAR and the existing resident associations to make conditions better in each development. Through numerous in-house efforts of the community services coordinator, property manager and family self sufficiency coordinator the agency will work collaboratively with local community-based organizations such as the Quality Community Council, the Parent Center, Region Ten, Weed & Seed, the faith based community and others to develop and promote programs that support the mission. This year CRHA entered into an agreement with the City of Charlottesville Department of Social Services to expand the utilization of the Family Resource Center at the Westhaven site and provide more hours of technology instruction and access to the community. We will also continue to promote GED study, job training, particularly the Connecting People To Jobs Program (CPTJ) administered by PHAR, employment and individual counseling, encouraging additional residents to become independent of public housing in the Charlottesville community. CRHA through the efforts of the Community Services Coordinator will improve communication with residents by preparing and distributing newsletters and hosting special events and activities.

LAST YEAR'S ACCOMPLISHMENTS

B. Goals

The goals and objectives listed below are derived from HUD's strategic Goals and Objectives and those emphasized in recent legislation. PHAs may select any of these goals and objectives as their own, or identify other goals and/or objectives. Whether selecting the HUD-suggested objectives or their own, PHAS ARE STRONGLY ENCOURAGED TO IDENTIFY QUANTIFIABLE MEASURES OF SUCCESS IN REACHING THEIR OBJECTIVES OVER THE COURSE OF THE 5 YEARS. (Quantifiable measures would include targets such as: numbers of families served or PHAS scores achieved.) PHAs should identify these measures in the spaces to the right of or below the stated objectives.

The most recent partnership with DSS will allow for the expansion of technology instruction and computer access to residents.

The Charlottesville Police Department will continue to provide on-site policing services at the Westhaven substation. The agency will study the feasibility of establishing another substation at South First Street that will also serve the Sixth Street and Riverside Avenue complexes. If funding allows a second property manager will be hired in FY 2004-2005 and provide on-site services to residents at these sites.

These training opportunities enabled staff to improve their coordination of service delivery to all residents. Participation in Self-Sufficiency programs such as Home-buyers Clubs are substantive ways that CRHA assists our residents in becoming independent, first –time homeowners. We are partners with the Piedmont Housing Alliance to administer the Mainstream Vouchers Program for the disabled in the Thomas Jefferson Planning District.

FAIR HOUSING:

1. Provide training on the Federal Fair Housing Act of 1968, with amendments, to all current CRHA staff. New hires will receive training within 6 months in employment.

We strongly encourage residents to enroll in our Family Self Sufficiency Program. CRHA's partnership with the Charlottesville-Albemarle Technical Education Center (CATEC) has resulted in the training and employment of two residents. CRHA received the HUD Best Practices award for the success of the program.
